Review: Gives 1948 decisions of the Northeast China Bureau of the Chinese Communist Party and its Northeast Railway Committee on the establishment of a traffic responsibility system. Under this system, traffic work teams assume full responsibility for their work.

Also gives 1950 decision of the Ministry of Industries, Northeast People's Government, on the establishment and enforcement of a system of fixed responsibility in production and the furtherance of fixed responsibility in industrial safety, inspection, and maintenance.

Eight articles describe the operation and experiences of this system in factories located at Mukden, An-tung, and Dairen.
